

Veteran doctors granted honorary status

Four veteran physicians were recently recognized for years of outstanding service and dedication to medicine and the mission of Kingston General Hospital at the annual Honorary Medical Staff luncheon.

Drs. Ivan Beck, Frank Cervenko, Hugh Gorwill and David Robertson were inducted into the esteemed group that includes 20 doctors who have made significant contributions to KGH.

The hospital's Medical Advisory Committee is responsible for recommending Honorary Medical Staff appointments to the Board of Directors. The honorary title is granted to physicians, scientists or others whose continued association with the hospital will enhance the institution.

Inductees are honoured with a certificate, scroll and pin.

*KGH's Honorary Medical Staff include (front, l-r) Dr. Moussa Cohanim, Dr. Stuart Vandewater, Dr. Nathan Kaufman, Dr. George Kipkie, Chief of Staff Dr. Peter Munt, Dr. Michael Simurda, Dr. David Surridge, Dr. Jack Kerr (back, l-r) Dr. Peter Morrin, Dr. Frank Cervenko, * Dr. Hugh Gorwill, * Dr. David Robertson, * Dr. Bev Lynn, Dr. Wesley Boston, Dr. John Marshall, CEO Joe de Mora, Dr. Ronald Pinkerton and Dr. Ray Matthews. New inductee Dr. Ivan Beck was absent.*

 denotes new inductee*