

Phil has made selling our house a pleasant and a rewarding experience. Phil took the time to appropriately price our home. We were in a hurry to sell, we had our price in mind - basically a similar house on our street had sold in just 2 days at 300 000, so we figured we would go with that price. Low and behold, Phil convinced us that our house would sell at a higher price than we wanted. We doubted him at first - the house sold in less than 3 days at 98.6% of the price! I highly recommend Phil to anyone who is thinking of buying or selling a property.

Phil - job well done! We can't wait to deal through you again.
